

10971NAT CERTIFICATE IV IN JUSTICE STUDIES

BARRINGTON COLLEGE

AUSTRALIA

Program Overview

Your school in partnership with Barrington College Australia is pleased to offer senior students the opportunity to undertake 10971NAT Certificate IV in Justice Studies as part of their school curriculum. The course is delivered at school by accredited law and justice educators alongside other school subjects or at the college's campuses.

Course Overview

The Certificate IV in Justice Studies was initially developed in response to the needs of various legal and justice related departments and organisations for employees with knowledge of the legal and justice system who can undertake a range of specialised administrative tasks. The course is designed to provide students with an increased knowledge in criminal justice and learn new specialised skills in criminal justice.

The award can lead to employment opportunities across a range of government departments including the Police Service, Border Force, Customs Services, Courts and Correctional Services and also legal offices, private investigation bureaus and justice-related organisations.

Course Duration

18-24 months.

Study Mode

Classes can be delivered in school, online or at Brisbane campus.

Course Availability

The course is available to students in Years 11 and 12.

Course Fees

Available upon request.
